7. Promotional communications

7.1. We may use your personal data to send you updates by email, text message, telephone or post about legal developments that might be of interest to you and/or information about our services, including exclusive offers, promotions or new services.

- 7.2. We have a legitimate interest in processing your personal data for promotional purposes (see above 'How and why we use your personal data'). This means we do not usually need your consent to send you promotional communications. However, where consent is needed, we will ask for this consent separately and clearly.
- 7.3. We will always treat your personal data with the utmost respect and never share it with other organisations other than contractors or agents that we occasionally use for the sending out of e-newsletters or event invitations.
- 7.4. You have the right to opt out of receiving promotional communications at any time by:
 - 7.4.1. contacting us by email addressed to "marketing@wilsonslp.com" or writing to Marketing, Wilsons, Alexandra House, St John Street, Salisbury, SP1 2SB
 - 7.4.2. using the 'unsubscribe' link in e-newsletters or electronic event invitations
- 7.5. We may ask you to confirm or update your marketing preferences if you instruct us to provide further services in the future, or if there are changes in the law, regulation, or the structure of our business.

8. Who we share your personal data with

- 8.1. We routinely share personal data with:
 - 8.1.1. professional advisers who we instruct on your behalf or refer you to, eg barristers, medical professionals, accountants, tax advisors or other experts;
 - 8.1.2. other third parties where necessary to carry out your instructions eg your mortgage provider, Companies House, or HM Land Registry in the case of a property transaction;
 - 8.1.3. our subsidiary companies: Wilsons Nominees Ltd, Wilsons Company Agents Limited, Wilsons Company Secretaries Ltd, Inveresk House Nominees Ltd and Wilsons Trust Corporation Ltd;
 - 8.1.4. our insurers and brokers;
 - 8.1.5. external auditors, eg in relation to quality assessments and the audit of our accounts;
 - 8.1.6. our bank;
 - 8.1.7. external service suppliers, representatives and agents that we use to make our business more efficient, eg, marketing agencies, analysis suppliers, cloud providers, software providers.
- 8.2. We only allow our service providers to handle your personal data if we are satisfied they take appropriate measures to protect your personal data. We also impose contractual obligations on service providers to ensure they can only use your personal data to provide services to us and to you.
- 8.3. We may disclose and exchange information with law enforcement agencies and regulatory bodies to comply with our legal and regulatory obligations.

8.4. We may also need to share some personal data with other parties, such as potential buyers of some or all of our business or during a re-structuring. Usually, information will be anonymised but this may not always be possible. The recipient of such information will be bound by confidentiality obligations.

9. Where your personal data is held

9.1. Information may be held at our offices and those of our subsidiary companies, third party agencies, service providers, representatives and agents as described above (see 'Who we share your personal data with').

10. How long your personal data will be kept

10.1. We will not retain your data for longer than necessary for the purposes set out in this policy. Different retention periods apply for different types of data. As a general guideline we will not hold your data for more than six years unless there is a specific need or you instruct us to do so. When it is no longer necessary to retain your personal data, we will delete or anonymise it.

10.2. We will keep your personal data after we have finished advising or acting for you. We will do so for one of the following reasons:

10.2.1. to comply with your instructions;

10.2.2. to respond to any questions, complaints or claims made by you or on your behalf;

10.2.3. to show that we treated you fairly;

10.2.4. to keep records required by law.

11. Your rights

11.1. You have the following rights, which you can normally exercise free of charge:

Access	The right to be provided with a copy of your personal data (the right of access)
Rectification	The right to require us to correct any mistakes in your personal data
To be forgotten	The right to require us to delete your personal data—in certain situations
Restriction of processing	The right to require us to restrict processing of your personal data—in certain circumstances, eg if you contest the accuracy of the data
Data portability	The right to receive the personal data you provided to us, in a structured, commonly used and machine-readable format and/or transmit that data to a third party—in certain situations

To object	The right to object: –at any time to your personal data being processed for direct marketing (including profiling); –in certain other situations to our continued processing of your personal data, eg processing carried out for the purpose of our legitimate interests.
Not to be subject to automated individual decision-making	The right not to be subject to a decision based solely on automated processing (including profiling) that produces legal effects concerning you or similarly significantly affects you

- 11.2. For further information on each of those rights, including the circumstances in which they apply, please contact us or contact the Information Commissioner's Office for guidance.
- 11.3. If you would like to exercise any of those rights please contact our Data Protection Compliance Manager to let us know which right you want to exercise and the information to which your request relates. On receipt of such a request we will almost always ask you to:-
- 11.3.1. let us have enough information to identify you - eg your full name, address and client or matter reference number; and
 - 11.3.2. let us have proof of your identity and address a copy of your driving licence or passport and a recent utility or credit card bill
- 11.4. Please do not however provide any proof of identity and address documentation until requested to do so by our Data Protection Compliance Manager.

12. Keeping your personal data secure

- 12.1. We have appropriate security measures to prevent personal data from being accidentally lost, or used or accessed unlawfully. We limit access to your personal data to those who have a genuine business need to access it. Those processing your information will do so only in an authorised manner and are subject to a duty of confidentiality.
- 12.2. We also have procedures in place to deal with any suspected data security breach. We will notify you and any applicable regulator of a suspected data security breach where we are legally required to do so.

13. How to complain

- 13.1. We hope that we or our Data Protection Compliance Manager can resolve any query or concern you may raise about our use of your information.
- 13.2. The General Data Protection Regulations also gives you the right to lodge a complaint with a supervisory authority, in particular in the European Union (or European Economic Area) state where you work, normally live or where any alleged infringement of data protection laws occurred. The supervisory authority in the UK is the Information Commissioner who may be contacted at <https://ico.org.uk/concerns> or telephone: 0303 123 1113.

14. Changes to this privacy statement

- 14.1. This privacy statement was published on 25 May 2018. We may change this privacy statement from time to time and any changes will be published on our website.
